

LIGHTHOUSE SWING BAND

The Lighthouse Swing Band, directed by Don Johnson was formed in 1984. The band features the musical talents of vocalist Shelley Parker and solo instrumentals from within the band. Known for its ability to swing and its dedication to Swing Era music, the award winning Big Band has established a wide following of dance lovers. Though playing mainly in Bruce Grey and Huron Counties, the band's popularity has taken it to Hamilton, Detroit, Oshawa, Barrie, Ottawa, Burlington and regularly to London Ontario. The Lighthouse Swing Band plays for public and private dances, fund raising events, service club dances and many "concerts in the park".
